

2010 Legislative Days

The Seattle Office for Civil Rights encourages residents to be involved with the legislative process. Below are a few opportunities to work with organizations that share some of our legislative priorities. For more information contact Brenda Anibarro at (206) 684-4514 or email Brenda.Anibarro@Seattle.Gov

January 18th

People's Summit & March on the Capitol, The March on Washington State for Jobs and Justice, Statewide Poverty Action Network,
<http://www.povertyaction.org/Home/index.cfm>

January 18th

Washington State Muslims Day at the Capitol, Council on American-Islamic Relations, <http://www.cairseattle.org/muslimcapitolday>

January 22nd

Latino Legislative Day <http://www.hispaniclegislative.org/wahld/>

January 27th

Unity Day, Minority Executive Directors Coalition,
<http://www.medcofkc.org/news/medc-unity-day-2010/>

February 2nd

Refugee and Immigrant Legislative Day
<http://www.rewa.org/events/LegislativeDay/2010LegislativeDay.htm>

February 4th

Asian Pacific American Legislative Day, WA State Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs
<http://www.capaa.wa.gov/events/legislativeDay.shtml>

February 12th

African-American Legislative day & Housing/Homelessness Advocacy Day, WA State Commission on African American Affairs, <http://www.caa.wa.gov/>

February 19th

Day of Remembrance (Remembering Japanese Internment)