

Change & Opportunity

South Lake Union is located at the center of Seattle. The neighborhood is between downtown and Lake Union, and is bordered by two highways: Interstate 5 and Aurora Avenue North (SR 99). Development is transforming the neighborhood from an industrial area into a mixed-use community where residents are able to live, work and play.

parks & open space

commercial & institutional buildings

planned/under construction

recently built

residential with mixed-use buildings

planned/under construction

recently built

transportation projects

