We may be able to help if you own your home, rent a home or own a rental

The Seattle Office of Housing's HomeWise program provides FREE weatherization upgrades for income-qualified homeowners and renters.

A properly weatherized home or apartment is both more efficient and more comfortable. It can reduce your utility bills while helping to save the environment.

2011 Income Guidelines

Total household monthly income before taxes, based upon household size*.

For weatherization of homes with a gas or oil heating system:

1 person	up to $2,126 per month
2 person	up to $2,780 per month
3 person	up to $3,435 per month
4 person	up to $4,089 per month

For weatherization of homes with electric heat:

1 person	up to $3,745 per month
2 person	up to $4,283 per month
3 person	up to $4,816 per month
4 person	up to $5,350 per month

*to save space, limits listed here show only up to 4-person households, but larger households are eligible. If you have 5+ persons in your household, call for applicable limits.
