Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

COFFEE HOURS

Central Building • 810 3rd Avenue
(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

3rd Thursdays from 10 to 11 a.m.

Thursday, October 15

Special Guest: Wayne Barnett, Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission

The Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission is an independent City commission responsible for interpreting and applying the City of Seattle's Ethics, Elections, Election Pamphlet, and Whistleblower Protection Codes and the City's Lobbying Regulations. Commission employees investigate allegations of wrongdoing, monitor compliance, and offer information and guidance to citizens and employees regarding these Codes. Come to this timely event to hear about the rules and regulations governing City elections.

Thursday, November 19

Special Guest: Holly Miller, City of Seattle Office for Education

The City of Seattle plays a significant role in helping children and youth succeed in school. Holly Miller directs the office that oversees the Families & Education Levy, helping children prepare to enter school, thrive academically, and graduate from high school. Come learn about the City's Families and Education Levy, which supports child and youth development programs, and a variety of city-school partnerships that build quality learning environments, strengthen academic achievement, and help kids thrive.

Future coffee hours: Coffee hours are scheduled on the third Thursday of every month, except December. Coffee hour dates in 2010: January 21, February 18, March 18, April 15, May 20, June 17, July 15, August 19, September 16, October 21, and November 18.

Dates and speakers subject to change.

Free concerts and events at City Hall following each coffee hour — see reverse for more information.
