Description: The Live Aloha Hawaiian Cultural festival on September 12 serves to promote and perpetuate the Hawaiian culture among the thousands of Hawaiian Islanders, Native Hawaiians and non-Islanders alike. By educating all visitors of our native Hawaiian and contemporary Hawaiian culture through entertainment, historical exhibits, Hawaiian goods and workshops, we hope that people will walk away with a good understanding about Hawaii's past and present culture.
O10014	Northwest	Pflug	Common Heart For Aurora	Karen Cirulli	No	NON	$360	$320
Description: Neighbors in Greenwood are planning a community dinner and drumming circle for the Greenwood/Aurora neighborhood. This area is commonly associated with negative stereotypes of violence, drugs and prostitution. This event will be an opportunity for community members who live or work on Aurora to share a meal with fellow Greenwood leaders and neighbors. It will be an important step in bridging and strengthening the Aurora/Greenwood community.
O10015	Central	Divina	Union Street Improvement Project Update	Central District Neighborhood Association	No	NON	$1,235	$1,000
Description: The Central District Neighborhood Association, with the Seattle Department of Neighborhoods, Seattle City Light, SDOT, NW Insurance Council and many neighborhood volunteers, previously successfully completed a Union Street streetscape visual and safety improvement project. We have regularly done watering, weeding and litter pickups since. Now we'd like to plant new plants in the gaps where plants have died or been stolen. Neighborhood volunteers will do an extensive litter pickup, graffiti removal and install the plants. After, we'll celebrate with spouses and children at a Central Cinema pizza party, a locally owned member of the Union Street Business Group and past sponsor of community celebrations. The Union Street corridor planting strip is in need of improved landscaping and beautification. The Central Neighborhood residents, block watches and businesses will engage in community building project. This is an opportunity for neighbors to partner up to enhance the quality of life.
