

Belltown Community Center Project Advisory Team (PAT) 2011

Andrew Cozin

Andrew is a recent college graduate with a degree in Environmental Studies and has a deep interest in fostering inclusive and vibrant communities and is involved with Sustainable Belltown and Sustainable Seattle.

Ben Borgman

Ben is a Belltown business owner, Manager of the Belltown Art Walk & More and Chairman of the Seattle Founder's Day Festival in Belltown.

Carolyn Geise Carolyn is an architect and developer in the neighborhood. She has been involved in neighborhood planning for many years including chair of the steering committee for Growing Vine Street for many years. She is a member of the Denny Hill Association, a member of the Belltown Business Association and a supporter of and gardener for the Belltown P-Patch.

Elizabeth Campbell

Elizabeth lives in Belltown and is involved in the Belltown Community Council, sustainable Belltown, is a member of Board of Friends of Belltown Gardens and works with Growing Vine Street.

Janis Ford

Janis is an at-large member of the Denny Hill Association and active in Growing Vine Street. Working with the Uptown Alliance in Seattle's Uptown Urban Center, Janis helped establish the Uptown Neighborhood Center

Katherine Fountain MacKinnon

Katherine works for the Downtown Seattle Association, is interim President of the Belltown Community Council, is a member of the Downtown District Council and Volunteer Manager of Seattle Founder's Day Festival in Belltown.

Susanne Rockwell Parks Project Planner

Patrick Donohue Parks Project Manager